Teachers threaten legal action against violent parents

TERRIFIED AND ON EDGE

EXCLUSIVE
BETHANY HIATT

Teachers are pushing to clamp down on bad behaviour by parents, who often target female staff, saying they've had enough of online threats.

In a push aimed at driving more respect for teachers, their union has detailed a litany of shocking abuse, with as many as 25 per cent facing it at least once a term. It warns those responsible could face legal action. One education staffer revealed: "A parent emailed, threatening that he will 'come and sort me out.'"
