

Quality Next Day Installation
 Installation completed by the next day or we pay you $500!

AIR CONTROL HOME SERVICES
 AIR • HEATING • PLUMBING • ELECTRIC

928-487-5521
AirControlAZ.com

Treating You Like Family Since 1990

[Nation]

NATIONAL GUARD
 Trump threatens to expand his military crackdown on big cities to Chicago: Page 16

[Sports]

NCAA FOOTBALL
 ASU preview: Title defense depends on forces that can't be quantified: Page 12

A&E CONSTRUCTION
 Your Remodeling Specialists

Call Today for your FREE Design Consultation 928-680-2891

TODAY'S NEWS-HERALD

$4
 VOLUME 60
 ISSUE 238

HAVASUNEWS.COM * TUESDAY, AUGUST 26, 2025 * Serving Lake Havasu City, Arizona

WEATHER | MONSOON SEASON MAKES A FLEETING APPEARANCE MONDAY

Taylor Schwartz-Olson (left) and Brandon Messick (right)/Today's News-Herald

Rainfall over Downtown Lake Havasu City brings cooler weather, as temperatures dip Monday morning into the mid-80s. For the past several weeks, the National Weather Service has declared a severe heat advisory for the Havasu area, with daily high temperatures greater than 110 degrees. Havasu residents can look forward to more of the same Tuesday, as the National Weather Service predicts high temperatures of 99 degrees and a 50% chance of thunderstorms. Temperatures are expected to rise to 101 degrees Wednesday and Thursday, as cloud cover is expected to remain over Havasu throughout the week. Above left: Rotary Park was mostly empty, save for a few people walking around enjoying the slightly cooler weather. Above right: A wet Main Street.

Havasu elected officials to host 2-day political academy

By TAYLOR SCHWARTZ-OLSON
 TODAY'S NEWS-HERALD

Jeni Coke

Cameron Moses

Cal Sheehy

According to a Facebook page created for the academy, E3 Havasu is a nonpartisan political organization committed to inspiring "community first" citizens who are ready to step up, speak out, and serve their communities through elected office.

The E3 Political Academy, which is being presented by Councilmember Jeni Coke along with Mayor Cal Sheehy and Councilmember Cameron Moses, is a nonpartisan, two-day academy designed for citizens who are ready to serve through elected office.

According to a flyer created for the academy, it is open to anyone interested in making a difference through public office, whether that person wants to run for school board, city council, county supervisor, state legislature, or Congress. First-time candidates, community leaders, and advocates are also invited to sign up.

Participants will learn about government, building a campaign, fundraising and finance, communications, policy and platform, and leadership development. The academy will take place Sept. 11 and 12 at Nomadic, located at 2119 McCulloch Blvd. The cost is $50 per person, and those interested in signing up can visit e3havasu.com.

Lawsuit calls for Arizona to contact owners of unclaimed money, property

By HOWARD FISCHER
 CAPITOL MEDIA SERVICES

PHOENIX — Arizonans could soon get better notice if the state is holding on to their share of nearly $2.8 billion in unclaimed property that really belongs to them.

In an unanimous decision Monday, a three-judge panel of the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals gave the go-ahead for two individuals to sue the state agency for failing to provide them with sufficient notice that it was holding on to money or other property that it listed as "unclaimed" or "abandoned." The ruling now allows them to sue the agency for violating their due process rights.

Appellate Judge Danielle Forrest, writing for the court, rejected claims by attorneys for the state that it could not be sued.

"When someone — even the government — possesses property lawfully owned by another without the owner's consent, an invasion of the owner's

See PROPERTY, Page 5

IN TODAY'S NEWS-HERALD

Planner.....	3	Sports.....	12-14
Best Bets.....	3	Comics.....	17-21
Opinion.....	6-9	Classifieds.....	22-23
Marketplace.....	10	Orchids & Onions.....	24

INSIDE: LOCAL

Dr. Floyd Wilks Jr. joins the Havasu Regional surgical team, expanding access to advanced procedures: Page 4

TODAY'S OBITUARIES

There are no obituaries today. See past obituary listings at legacy.com/us/obituaries/havasunews/today

TODAY'S WEATHER

High: 94 Low: 81 See page 15