MIDDLE EAST WAR

Israel OKs talks with Lebanon

PM Netanyahu's move aims to boost ceasefire efforts 'as soon as possible'

DUBAI, United Arab Emirates — In a potential boost to Middle East ceasefire efforts, Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu said Thursday that he authorized direct negotiations with Lebanon “as soon as possible” aimed at disarming Iranian-backed Hezbollah militants and establishing relations between the neighbors.

The two countries have technically been at war since Israel was established in 1948, and Netanyahu later stressed that there was no ceasefire between them. In a video statement, he said Israel will keep striking Hezbollah until security is restored in northern Israel. There was no immediate response from Lebanese authorities. But Israel-Lebanon negotiations were expected to begin next week at the State Department in Washington, according to a U.S. official and a person familiar with the plans who both spoke on condition of anonymity due to the delicacy of the matter.

The prospect of talks appeared to bolster the tenta-

Today launches 2 sold-out weekends of world-famous music showcase

Staff reports

When fans step onto the Empire Polo Field in Indio today, they'll be participating in a cultural milestone — the 25th version of the Coachella Valley Music and Arts Festival, which has grown from a fledgling event to a global gathering that shapes the tastes of music fans worldwide.

It wasn't a seamless transition. After the first festival in October 1999 was awash in red ink, it took promoter Goldenvoice a year and a half to try again — and then in a stripped-down, one-day format. From that uneven start, the festival began to grow steadily, expanding to three days and adding the

A small airplane crashed on Catalina Island on Thursday, killing both people on board, authorities said.

The aircraft, an Airplane Factory Sling, crashed around 12:30 p.m., according to the Federal Aviation Administration. Both people in the plane were found dead when paramedics arrived, the Los Angeles County Fire Department said.

The plane wound up on the south side of the island and in a ravine, Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department Capt. Matthew King said.

The plane appeared to have taken off from Zamperini Field in Torrance and crash-landed on the island, according to FlightAware, a third-party website that tracks flights.

It was not immediately known if the pilot was trying to land at Catalina Airport.
