The Trump administration is freezing Federal Emergency Management Agency aid for ongoing disaster relief amid the federal government’s partial shutdown, an action that generated a new layer of uncertainty and sharp pushback Monday in Los Angeles County’s fire-scorched burn zones.

Effective Sunday morning, funding ceased indefinitely under the federal agency’s Public Assistance Program for ongoing and “legacy” disasters, according to an announcement Sunday from the Department of Homeland Security.

The program reimburses 75% or more of eligible state and local disaster costs, including debris removal and public infrastructure restoration, according to the federal government.

Local emergency management officials say the funds have been a vital piece in efforts to rebuild, as it shares costs with

LOS ANGELES — Nick Reiner, the 32-year-old son of Hollywood luminary Rob Reiner and Michele Singer Reiner, pleaded not guilty Monday to two counts of first-degree murder more than two months after their deaths, denying for the first time that he fatally stabbed his parents.

Reiner’s attorney, Deputy Public Defender Kimberly Greene, entered the plea on his behalf as he stood behind glass in an enclosed custody area of the packed Los Angeles courtroom.

The third of Rob Reiner’s four children, Nick Reiner has been held without bail since his arrest hours after beloved actor-director Reiner and photographer and

Kaiser strike ends as parties report progress in talks

By Pat Maio
PMAIO@SCNG.COM

The nearly five-week strike by 31,000 registered nurses and other workers at Kaiser Permanente is over, with union members set to return to work today.

In a statement, the union said its members are going back to work while “final negotiations are completed.”

The likely end of the protracted walkout comes after last week saw more than 40% of union workers cross picket lines and go back to work.

With town hall and video conferencing meetings scheduled Monday, the union posted a message via
