On June 21, Azusa resident Michael Delgado was enjoying a Father's Day brunch with his in-laws when he got a call any business owner dreads. Around 10 a.m., Delgado's landlord called to inform him a car had crashed through the building at Delgado's business. Delgado owns Happy Paws Dog Grooming in Monrovia, where he's been providing grooming services for over a decade. The large car, which appears to be a Jeep or a truck from videos the business posted on Instagram, most directly hit neighboring Devine Hair. The cause of the collision is still under investigation, according to the Monrovia Police Department. No arrests have been made as of July 2, according to Monrovia Lt. Richard Schneider. Officials declined to give more detail about the car or driver, citing an ongoing investigation.
