

High school football

Sports: After nearly a decade of dominance, can NorCal dethrone the SoCal heavyweights? Page 12

Inside

Los Altos: History museum program aims to answer curation questions.

Page 2

Courts: Partial verdict for San Mateo couple accused of trafficking nanny.

Page 4

Tech: Google eyes tech building in Milpitas suitable for AI work.

Page 5

More online: Facebook.com/PeninsulaNewsWeekly

COMPOSED OF THE DAILY NEWS™
AND SAN MATEO COUNTY TIMES®

Support Local News

Alameda Journal
Almaden Resident
Berkeley Voice
Cambrian Resident
Campbell Reporter
Concord Transcript
Cupertino Courier
East County News
El Cerrito Journal
Los Gatos Weekly Times
Milpitas Post

Oakland Tribune
Peninsula News
Rose Garden Resident
Saratoga News
Sunnyvale Sun
The Argus
The Daily Review
The Montclarion
The Piedmonter
Walnut Creek Journal
Willow Glen Resident

REDWOOD CITY

Rent control fight heads to voters

Ballot measure would establish stricter rules. Page 2

Rent control advocate Kathleen Layden stands outside her apartment in Redwood City on Aug. 20. Layden is part of Faith in Action Bay Area, a local group that successfully campaigned to put a rent control measure on the Redwood City ballot. RAY CHAVEZ — STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER