Nearly a month after a massive fire destroyed Medline Tracy's distribution facility, the company announced Monday it will lease two large distribution centers in Northern California.

The announcement mentions an existing 925,000-square-foot warehouse in Tracy, to be occupied immediately and a new 709,000-square-foot facility in Stockton that will be available for use in January 2027. Both facilities will total more than 1.6 million square feet of new medical supplies distribution center space.
