

WEEKEND LIFE

DINING
 Wafflato's options shine in new YYC location E5

NEWS

EVENTS
 Tsuut'ina Nation holiday festival offers market, Santa photos A4

WESTJET
 Work to remove reclining seats to be suspended till spring A6

NP

PROFILE
 Hoekstra's blunt approach to diplomacy stands apart NP1

POLITICS
 PQ balks at PM's rumoured pick for U.S. envoy NP2

FP

ECONOMY
 Household wealth climbs to record high of $18.4T B1

Activate your ePaper – it's included with your subscription. Scan the QR code or visit epaper.calgaryherald.com

FEMALE FOCUS WITHIN TURKEY
 Women's-only tour makes for cleansing, insightful visit E9

DOWN & OUT IN A SMALL TOWN
 Homelessness used to be seen as solely a big-city issue E1

CALGARY HERALD

'THE WOUNDS ARE STILL THERE'
 Time hasn't healed pain of 1992 murder A2

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 13, 2025

ESTABLISHED 1883

POSTMEDIA

PROVINCE PREPARES FOR A DIP

Smith warns of 'short-term troubles' due to sagging oil price: Varcoe A5

DARREN MAKOWICHUK

SUPPORTING OUR CITY

Thousands of our fellow residents work or volunteer to help the vulnerable members of our community every day, such as these folks from the Distress Centre Calgary. This giving season, help us assist many through the Calgary Christmas Fund. A3

SPORTS

BLUE JAYS
 Shapiro seals unsurprising deal for 5-year extension B9

CALGARY ARTS

MUSIC
 Soundtrack recalls 'fruitful' period for local indie scene C1