

MONTH OF FUNDRAISING NETS 1.5% OF SUSSEX GOAL. A4

NATIONAL POST

VOL. 28 NO. 226

SATURDAY, AUGUST 1, 2026

RIGHT TO THE POINT

Only disciplined
policy and execution
can lower Canada's reliance on the U.S.
Black, A12

How TikTok
saved the sardine
industry.
Page FP1

It's time to remind ourselves
of the importance
of Emancipation Day.
Glavin, PC2

RIGHTS MUSEUM'S BREACH OF TRUST

The Canadian
Human Rights
Museum
in Winnipeg.

DAVID LIPNOWSKI / POSTMEDIA NEWS

Founder Gail Asper
is considering stepping down from
her honorary board
position over
the Canadian
rights museum's
'Nakba' exhibit.

THOMAS FRICKE / POSTMEDIA NEWS

'This exhibit is going to have a lot of people lose faith in the museum's trustworthiness
for being an honest
purveyor of accurate ...
information.' Page A6

GOVERNMENT OF CANADA

WEEKEND POST

Canada's next destroyers are under construction after a 57-year hiatus. WP1 Plus, new submarines are on order, but where are the submariners? A3

Canadian
economy grows
even as population
contracts.
FP2

Published by National Post,
a division of Postmedia Network Inc.
Return undeliverable Canadian copies to 300-365 Bloor St. E., Toronto, Ont. M4W 3L4

Publication Mail Agreement Number 40069573

ABDEL MAJID BZIOUAT / AFP VIA GETTY IMAGES

WORLD

As tens of thousands of migrants over-run Spain's North African enclave, the country's prime minister is under political attack
by the U.S. and the European Union. A10