Fossil Ridge helps create new version of 'Kimberly Akimbo'

Kelly Lyell Fort Collins Coloradoan | USA TODAY NETWORK

Fossil Ridge High School's reputation for putting on outstanding musicals provided its students with a unique opportunity to help write the high school version of a Tony Award-winning production. ● Fossil Ridge piloted the high school version of "Kimberly Akimbo," winner of the 2023 Tony Award for best musical, in November at the request of the licensing agency. ● And now Fossil Ridge students and staff, who had the opportunity to work directly with the show's writers, David Lindsay-Abaire and Jeanine Tesori, through Zoom meetings, are taking the show on the road this summer.

"We're the first school to do it, so we are the people who are setting the standard. It's a unique experience that you very rarely get."
