Fighter jets, sky divers and several daring stunt pilots put on an astounding aerial display in Pueblo over the week-end during the first Wings of Pride air show at Pueblo Memorial Airport.

The two-day event marked the first appearance of the world-renowned U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds in Pueblo in three decades and featured ground displays of military and civilian aircraft, as well as performances from the U.S. Army Golden Knights — the Army’s official parachute demonstration — and several stunt pilots.

Man arrested in Pueblo homicide

A 43-year-old man was arrested on suspicion of murder on Sept. 26 following a three-year investigation by the Pueblo County Sheriff’s Office into the death of a man whose remains were found in a shallow grave in eastern Pueblo County in 2022.

Leon Pantoya was arrested by PCSO detectives assigned to the U.S. Marshals Task Force, with assistance from the U.S. Marshals Service, on a warrant for first-degree murder in the death of 39-year-old Steven Robinson, according to a PCSO news release.

In addition to the murder charge, Pantoya was charged with theft in an amount between $20,000 and $100,000, and identity theft — both Class 4 felonies — after the PCSO alleges he withdrew more than $75,000 from Robinson’s bank account after his death.

The arrest follows an extensive investigation led by PCSO Detective Vanessa Simpson that began on Sept. 25, 2022, after a property owner in the 3500 block of 36th Lane reported finding possible human remains in a shallow grave.

“Forensic analysis confirmed the remains were human. An autopsy determined the victim had suffered blunt force and sharp force trauma, and the manner of death was ruled a homicide,” PCSO officials said in the release.

The unidentified victim was entered into the National Missing and Unidentified Persons System database in 2022 and although no matches were made, “several leads were generated,” according to the PCSO’s release.

A DNA profile for the victim was developed in March 2023, but no matches were found and a reconstruction image created by a forensic artist and shared publicly by the PCSO produced few leads.

“With assistance from the Colorado Bureau of Investigation, the victim’s

Police are asking Puebloans to be on the lookout for two juveniles who allegedly escaped from a detention facility in Colorado Springs.

Dameron Carbajal-Hidalgo and Cristian Jaramillo were seen on video walking away from Spring Creek Youth Services Center just after 1p.m. on Sept. 22, according to a Colorado Springs Police Department news release. CSPD says both are “considered dangerous.”

Carbajal-Hidalgo, 17, is described as Hispanic, 5 feet 5 inches tall, weighing approximately 150 pounds, with brown hair and brown eyes. He has four no-bond warrants and was last seen wearing a grey sweater and black jeans.

At the time of his escape, Carbajal-Hidalgo was serving a five-year sentence after being convicted of attempted murder in Pueblo County.

Along with warrants related to his escape on the attempted homicide sentence, he also has warrants for failing to appear in court on charges that include assault/riot in the detention facility, third-degree assault — knowingly or recklessly causing injury, and second-degree assault.

Jaramillo, also 17, was serving a four-year sentence for kidnapping out of Pueblo County.

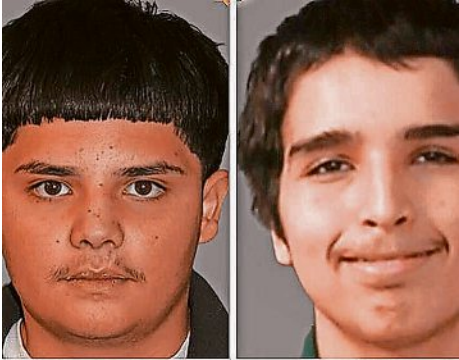

He is described as Hispanic, 5 feet 7 inches tall, weighing about 170 pounds, with brown hair, brown eyes, and a mustache. He was also last seen wearing a grey sweater and black jeans.

If you see either juvenile, call 911 immediately and do not approach them. If you have information about their whereabouts, please contact local law enforcement.

Those wishing to remain anonymous can contact the Pikes Peak Area Crime Stoppers tipline at 719-634-STOP (7867), or 800-222-8477. If your information leads to a felony arrest, you could be eligible for a cash reward.
