Former attorney and Pueblo YMCA Board Member Emeritus Lewis Quigg died March 31, one day after his 80th birthday. He is remembered by those who knew him as an example of service over self.

"The biggest thing, when it comes to my dad's philanthropy within the community, is he was not boastful about it. He didn't brag about it," said

After nearly two years of construction, the Pueblo Riverwalk Boathouse and Phase IV channel extension project is complete. • Following the official opening of the channel extension earlier this year, the Historic Arkansas Riverwalk of Pueblo Authority is set to put a bow on the nearly $16 million project on April 23 with the grand opening of the Boathouse — a two-story multi-use facility that will welcome visitors to the Riverwalk, provide space for boat storage, offer ticket sales and concessions, and more.

The upcoming ceremony will feature remarks from local leaders and open house-style tours of the new boathouse, HARP officials said in a news release.

"The Riverwalk channel extension improves pedestrian connectivity to downtown Pueblo, while The Boathouse provides a vibrant, shared community space," HARP officials said in an April 13 news release. "Additionally, relocating the HARP Authority offices to The Boathouse has opened up prime Riverwalk frontage, creating new opportunities for retail, hospitality, and tourism-oriented development."

The Phase IV channel extension opened earlier this year, completing a new walking loop on the
