NFA transforms key spaces

Matt Grahn Norwich Bulletin | USA TODAY NETWORK

From new dining spaces to upgraded theater seating and sound, major renovations underway at Norwich Free Academy are set to enhance campus life for students beginning this fall. • NFA currently has two remodeling projects ongoing. The school cafeteria, which will have new amenities and seating, will be ready for the start of school. Slater Auditorium will have new seating, improved audio equipment, and more. The Auditorium will be finished for December 5. See RENOVATIONS, Page 2A

COLLEGE ENROLLMENT

CT State opens for the fall semester

Beth McDermott
Norwich Bulletin
USA TODAY NETWORK

Connecticut residents considering college this fall still have time to register for classes as CT State Community College opens enrollment for the Fall 2026 semester, which begins Aug. 27. The college system is offering classes in on-campus, online and hybrid formats, according to a community announcement. Prospective students can apply through ctstate.edu and are encouraged to register early for the widest selection of courses.

CT suburb ranks among wealthiest

How much money do residents make?

Bailey Allen
USA TODAY NETWORK - NEW ENGLAND

One Connecticut suburb was ranked No. 27 among the wealthiest in the United States, according to a recent analysis. MoneyLion, a financial technology platform, ranked the nation's 50 most affluent suburbs by median household income using data from the U.S. Census Bureau's 2024 American Community Survey. The ranking includes communities with at least 5,000 households that qualify as suburbs of larger metropolitan areas. The town of Scarsdale, New York, topped the overall list for the third year in a row, while California had the most communities represented among the nation's wealthiest. The sole Connecticut suburb on the list is in Fairfield County and is one of
