

Egg-cellent treats

Bird's nest cookies combine Easter craft and dessert into a delicious package

Bird bashing

Maxwell: Scrub-jay protection in jeopardy. Local & State, Page 3

NCAA preview

A look at the Final Four teams in college hoops. Special section, Page 1

1876 | STANDING GUARD FOR CENTRAL FLORIDA FOR 150 YEARS | 2026

Orlando Sentinel

$4.50 | THURSDAY, APRIL 2, 2026 | ORLANDOSENTINEL.COM

ARTEMIS II LAUNCH

RICARDO RAMIREZ BUXEDA/ORLANDO SENTINEL

TO THE MOON

Artemis II, with four astronauts aboard, takes off from Launch Complex 39B on Wednesday. Go to OrlandoSentinel.com for the latest on the mission.

Justices wary of limits on birthright citizenship

Trump order would alter long-held view of Constitution, law

By Mark Sherman
ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON — The Supreme Court seemed poised Wednesday to reject President Donald Trump's restrictions on birthright citizenship in a consequential case that was magnified by his unparalleled

ONLINE

■ For complete coverage of President Trump's address to the nation, go to the e edition or OrlandoSentinel.com.

presence in the courtroom. Conservative and liberal justices questioned whether Trump's order declaring that children born to parents who are in the United States illegally or temporarily are not American citizens comports with either the Constitution or federal law.

Arguments lasted more than two hours in a crowded courtroom that included not only Trump, the first sitting president to attend arguments at the nation's highest court, but also Attorney General Pam Bondi and Commerce Secretary Howard Lutnick, and in seats reserved for the justices' guests, actor Robert De Niro.

See CITIZENSHIP on Page A2

Orlando Mayor Buddy Dyer, holding jersey at left, Orange County Mayor Jerry Demings, holding jersey on far right, and other dignitaries celebrate during an announcement the Jacksonville Jaguars will play the 2027 NFL season in Orlando, at City Hall on Tuesday. STEPHEN M. DOWELL/ORLANDO SENTINEL

CENTRAL FLORIDIAN OF THE YEAR FINALIST

Elevating neighbors in need

Lift Orlando's Moratin is revitalizing communities around city's stadium

By Steven Walker
ORLANDO SENTINEL

Since 1982, the Orlando Sentinel has asked the community to help us recognize people who make a big difference in local lives with our Central Floridian of the Year award. For the next few weeks, we will publish features on this year's finalists. Our winner will be announced on April 11.

Eddy Moratin jogged down the stairs from his second-floor office at Lift Orlando's headquarters to the lobby below, welcoming visitors with a first-name greeting and a hug.

The building, with a community center and a cafe, is an extension of Moratin's work in a neighborhood he now calls home. Everyone Moratin greeted seemed happy to see the man with a contagious smile.

"How's your day?" they asked. "How are the kids?" But a warm welcome wasn't always the case.

See MORATIN on Page A2

Eddy Moratin, president of Lift Orlando, pictured at the Heart of West Lakes Wellness Center. RICH POPE/ORLANDO SENTINEL

Hallelujah, it's official! Jaguars, NFL coming to Oooooor-lan-do!

Mike Bianchi

Updated from the Wednesday e-edition's Sports Extra.

Orlando, this is no longer a drill or a dream. This is no longer speculation, rumor or civic wishful thinking. This is now official, and this is a moment this city has been building toward for decades. The NFL is coming to Orlando. The Teal is real! NFL owners voted unanimously Tuesday that the Jacksonville Jaguars will play the entire 2027 season at Camping World Stadium while EverBank Field in Jacksonville undergoes its massive renovation.

No, the Jaguars are not moving to Orlando permanently. Let's get that out of the way right now before the conspiracy theories start flying. Jacksonville is the Jaguars' home, and when their stadium renovation is complete, they'll go back.

See BIANCHI on Page A12

Museum's Basquiat probation ends with reaccreditation

By Matthew J. Palm
ORLANDO SENTINEL

Orlando Museum of Art's probation with the American Alliance of Museums has ended, as the institution announced its reaccreditation by the national organization on Tuesday.

The probationary status was one of the last remaining shadows cast over the Loch Haven Park museum in the wake of the 2022 scandal that erupted after the FBI seized artwork attributed to the late Jean-Michel Basquiat from an OMA exhibit titled "Heroes & Monsters." A California man later admitted to forging some of the exhibit's pieces; the out-of-state owners have maintained that the works are genuine.

The museum itself was not the target of the FBI's fraud investigation. But after the raid, which made national news, the American

See MUSEUM on Page A13

CURIOSITY HAS NO AGE LIMIT

If you enjoy trying new things and challenging yourself, Orlando Science Center is for you. It's more than just a museum. It's a place to DO science.

Get tickets and more info at www.osc.org.

