

CHICAGO SUN★TIMES

$2 CITY/BURBS $3 ELSEWHERE

LATE SPORTS FINAL

People line up Tuesday as they wait for the Social Security Administration's office to open in Evanston.

PAT NABONG/SUN-TIMES

SOCIAL INSECURITY

As cuts hit Social Security Administration, Chicago-area residents fear they may struggle to get benefits they rely on. 'It's a disaster for ordinary people.'

VIOLET MILLER AND CLARE LANE REPORT, PAGE 6

SACKED CPS CHIEF MARTINEZ HIRED AS MASSACHUSETTS EDUCATION COMMISSIONER

SARAH KARP AND NADER ISSA REPORT, PAGE 7

Yusef Jackson invests in company that's reaped big profits from state of Illinois program

WATCHDOGS, PAGE 10

Bob Irving, docent who created the beloved Chicago architecture river cruise, dead at 93

PAGES 12-13

In era of drag bans, threats to queer culture, 'At the Wake of a Dead Drag Queen' a play for today

PAGES 18-19