

CHICAGO SUN★TIMES

$2 CITY/BURBS $3 ELSEWHERE ♦ SPORTS FINAL

The exterior work on the first of two planned towers, with waterfall-like windows, at 400 N. Lake Shore Drive has been completed.

ANTHONY VAZQUEZ/SUN-TIMES

WELCOME TO THE SKYLINE

Exterior construction wraps up at the first of two towers at 400 N. Lake Shore Drive, a site known for the crater left behind when the proposed Chicago Spire skyscraper went belly up in '08

LEE BEY, PAGE 6

FIRMS TIED TO 2 MEN CONVICTED OF CORRUPTION HAVE HAD CAMPAIGN BUSINESS FROM PRITZKER AND CTU

A WATCHDOGS REPORT BY ANDREW ADAMS AND PETER NICKEAS, PAGES 8-9

Bally's to stop work on some amenities at permanent River West casino site amid video gambling dispute

KYRA SENESE REPORTS, PAGE 7

PAT NABONG/SUN-TIMES

'It's joyful, it's silly, and I think people need it': Lincoln Square 'cat tour,' the city's 1st, is a hit

ERICA THOMPSON REPORTS, PAGE 10