

BECAUSE NEWS MATTERS. SUPPORT LOCAL JOURNALISM.

Herald & Review

Brad Biggs' thoughts on the Chicago Bears' Week 6 win

PAGE B1

Man with legal residency gets $130 ticket from ICE

PAGE A4

Wednesday, October 15, 2025 WHERE YOUR STORY LIVES Powered by herald-review.com • #TogetherDecatur

AGRICULTURE

JOSEPH RESSLER PHOTOS, HERALD & REVIEW

Elliott Burgett harvests the almost 1,000 acres of corn on his farm in Warrensburg on Monday, Oct. 13.

Harvest underway for Central Illinois farmers

Elliott Burgett harvests the corn crop in a combine near Warrensburg on Monday, Oct. 13.

A combine fills an auger wagon with corn in Warrensburg on Monday, Oct. 13.

Corn flows from a combine into an auger wagon in Warrensburg on Monday, Oct. 13.

Elliott Burgett harvests the almost 1,000 acres of corn on his farm in Warrensburg on Monday, Oct. 13.

Harvested corn fills a combine in Warrensburg on Monday, Oct. 13.

MIDDLE EAST

Fragile Gaza ceasefire holds

Israelis lament incomplete return of dead hostages

SAM MEDNICK AND GIOVANNA DELL'ORTO Associated Press

TEL AVIV, Israel — The tenuous ceasefire in the Israel-Hamas war held Tuesday even as the return of deceased hostages from Gaza progressed more slowly than Israelis had hoped and health officials in the devastated territory said the Israeli military fatally shot three Palestinians.

A day earlier, Israelis celebrated the return of the last 20 living hostages in Gaza and Palestinians rejoiced at Israel's release of some 2,000 prisoners and detainees as part of the ceasefire's first phase.

But now attention in Israel turned to when Hamas will return all the bodies of hostages who died in captivity. While Israeli officials understood there could be some delay in the recovery effort, the families of hostages and their supporters expressed dismay that only four of the 28 bodies were returned on Monday.

The Hostages Family Forum, a grassroots organization representing many of the hostage families, called it a "blatant violation of the agreement by Hamas."

The top official in Israel coordinating the return of hostages and the missing, Gal Hirsch, told the families in a note that pressure was being

Please see GAZA, Page A2

POLITICS | ILLINOIS

Madigan goes to fed prison for 7-year term

HANNAH MEISEL Capitol News Illinois

CHICAGO — Former Illinois House Speaker Michael Madigan reported to a West Virginia federal prison on Monday to begin his 7 1/2-year sentence for public corruption — nearly 600 miles away from his native Chicago and the state he spent decades shaping as its most influential power broker.

Madigan, who turned 83 a couple months after his marathon four-month trial ended in February, had asked to remain free while his newly hired high-profile team of appellate lawyers work on overturning his conviction. But earlier this month, the 7th Circuit Court of Appeals denied the bid, sealing the former speaker's fate as federal inmate number 90368-509.

The federal prison camp in

Please see MADIGAN, Page A2

GET THE FULL BENEFITS OF YOUR SUBSCRIPTION!

Activate your digital account to get updated stories, videos, and hundreds of additional puzzles and comics. Visit herald-review.com/activate and download our app for the E-edition and breaking news on the go!

Weather Partly sunny and warm High 80 • Low 55 FORECAST • B8

Inside
ADVICE	B6
OPINION	A7
OBITUARIES	A5
COMICS	B7
CLASSIFIEDS	B4
TV HIGHLIGHTS	B6

7 02138 00001 2