

A tribunal that cares

An anti-bullying tribunal that the government is proposing must include those with experience and skills to deal with cases involving minors, say experts. They say the legal framework must also have prevention strategies and awareness on human rights values. > See reports on page 4 & 6 by MARTIN CARVALHO, JUNAID IBRAHIM and DIYANA PFORDTEN

A picture of national pride

The National Registration Department's Arts and Culture Brigade showcasing a vibrant nation with colourful traditional clothing at the Home Ministry's monthly assembly in Putrajaya. Home Minister Datuk Seri Saifuddin Nasution Ismail says the ministry is working to reduce bureaucratic obstacles and modernise the NRD. > See report on page 5

Solving doctor shortfall in Sabah, Sarawak

Stakeholders advocate for placement of local medical officers and better incentives for their counterparts from the peninsula to address manpower shortage in the two Borneo states.

> See reports on page 7 by RAGANANTHINI VETHASALAM