

World

US behind school strike

A military probe finds the US responsible for the missile strike on an Iranian school killing 165 people, mostly children. >24

The Star

people's paper

FRIDAY 13 MARCH 2026 • PP19652/12/2020 (035234) RM3.00

Discover Malaysia's Success at GULFOOD @DUBAI

Flip inside to read now

StarLifestyle

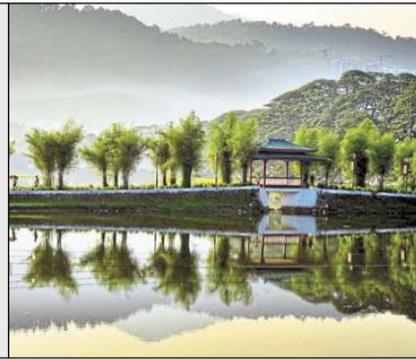

Registering success

Lim Wei Kang is proof that with training and support, individuals with Down syndrome can be independent and productive. >2&3

StarBiz

Conflict puts Malaysia to the test

Malaysia's net energy exporter status is a buffer, but risks remain if Middle East crisis continues.

StarMetro

Timeless Taiping

Perak's historical town launches cultural, nature and community events to boost tourists arrivals for Visit Malaysia 2026. >2&3

Is it a healthy plan?

The Employees Provident Fund plans to expand its i-Lindung scheme and allow members to withdraw savings for a new government health insurance plan. Experts, however, are divided with some hailing the plan and others calling it a misstep. > See reports on page 2 by RAHIMY RAHIM and RAGANANTHINI VETHASALAM

Photo: MUHAMAD SHAHRIL ROSLI/The Star

Keeping tabs on traffic flow

Officers from PLUS Malaysia Bhd observing the traffic on giant monitors at the Traffic Monitoring Centre at Persada PLUS in Petaling Jaya. PLUS, which is managing several highways including the North-South Expressway, expects some 2.3 million vehicles on its network daily this Hari Raya Aidilfitri. > See reports on page 3 by QISTINA SALLEHUDDIN and NAN HIDAYAT NAN AZMIE

Busting fake online advertisements

Fomca has called for a strong and transparent verification framework to create a safer online environment for consumers and legitimate businesses. > See reports on page 7 by FAZLEENA AZIZ