

Nation

Orang Asli rescues missing hiker

Jaslinda Saludin found alive after exhaustive two-week search. >3

World

Bahrain, Kuwait hit by Iran salvos

Teheran says strikes target enemy bases in response to US action. >28

StarHealth

Printing bones in his back room

Using a 3D printer, this surgeon creates moulds to replace diseased bone in order to save limbs from being amputated. >3

StarEdu

Tech-driven TVET

In conjunction with National TVET Day, here's a look at the latest initiatives and innovations to train and upskill youth in high-growth, high-value sectors. >2&3

Courting new coalitions

Political marriages are being arranged in Johor and Negri Sembilan now that the election drumbeat has begun in the two states. Johor Bersatu is contemplating an electoral pact with three other parties and, on the national stage, PAS and Bersatu appear to be going their separate ways.

> See reports on page 6 by NELSON BENJAMIN and ZAKIAH KOYA

Photo: Bernama

Supporting local businesses

Finance Minister II Datuk Seri Amir Hamzah Azizan (right) conversing with a small business trader while underscoring the power of domestic spending during his visit to the Kelana Jaya Morning Market as part of the Microcredit Outreach programme. > See report on page 4

From Hormuz to homes: Coping with the cost of conflict

As the impacts of the US-Iran conflict begin to eat into their fuel and food bills, households and small businesses are taking practical steps to cope, including buying local. Relevant ministries say they are exploring targeted measures to tackle the challenges. > Read the second part of the special report on pages 16 to 20 by media alliance Media in Arms

Media In Arms

