The Patriotic Parachute Team, comprised of former Special Forces parachutists, descended from the sky to start a celebration in Liberty Park following the Freedom Hill groundbreaking on Tuesday.

New development provides free homes to veterans, first responders

TOWN OF MOORESVILLE

The town of Mooresville broke ground on Tuesday on a development to house veterans and first responders. National charity organization Building Homes for Heroes partnered with Lowe’s

Home Improvement and the town of Mooresville to create Freedom Hill. The Freedom Hill community will have up to 15 homes which will be given to veterans, a release from the town of Mooresville said. The development will be located along

North Maple Street, next to Liberty Park. The town of Mooresville donated about 4 acres where the community will be built. Lowe’s helped fund the initiative through

Portion of Rinehardt Road to close for months

FROM STAFF REPORTS

A portion of Rinehardt Road at N.C. Highway 150 in Mooresville will be closed for several months starting on Monday. The road closure is for housing developers to make updates to the Rinehardt Road and N.C. Highway 150 intersection as required by the N.C. Department of Transportation, a news release from the N.C. Department of Transportation said. N.C. Department of Transportation is requiring MI Homes, of Charlotte, to re-align the intersection due to an expected increase in traffic from an upcoming housing development currently under construction, the release said. The housing development is Rinehardt

Village and will be comprised of 225 single-family homes and 114 townhomes, according to a Mooresville Tribune article from 2020.
