Trump demands safe strait

U.S. seeks declaration on Hormuz; Iran claims it is theirs

By Michelle L. Price, Jon Gambrell and Will Weissert
The Associated Press

WASHINGTON — The U.S. is demanding that Iran make a public statement saying the Strait of Hormuz is open and that ships crossing the vital corridor won’t be attacked anymore, senior U.S. officials said Friday, adding that internal Tehran power struggles have made it difficult to reach and keep a deal.

The U.S. officials, who spoke on condition of anonymity to describe to reporters the state of play with Iran, said the resumption of strikes this week came after what they described as a rogue faction of Iranian hard-liners trying to sabotage the ceasefire between

Three men in van with driver shot by ICE dispute version of officials

By Lekan Oyekanmi, Jack Brook and Ryan J. Foley
The Associated Press/Report for America

HOUSTON — Three men inside a van who witnessed the fatal shooting of the driver by an immigration officer in Houston said the Mexican man was shot through a passenger window and that the officer was never threatened, a lawyer who has spoken with them said Friday.

The shooting Tuesday during an attempted traffic stop by Immigration and Customs Enforcement officers in Houston has revived critical voices deriding the Trump administration’s immigration crackdown and how ICE operates. Immigration arrests around the country recently

Springs Preserve officials baffled by toad sighting

By Lucas Hellberg
Las Vegas Review-Journal

For the first time in more than six decades, a toad has returned to the historic Las Vegas Springs — and no one knows how it got there.
A lone male Woodhouse’s toad was photographed last month by a wildlife camera at the Springs Preserve’s cienega wetland, preserve officials said, marking the first documented sighting of the toad on the 180-acre property since the original
