

WEATHER DOUBLE WHAMMY

LI set to dry out, clean up after torrential rain followed damaging thunderstorms

A5

THOMAS HENGGE

A taxi drives through floodwaters on Browns River Road in Sayville on Monday.

HOCHUL'S DAY ON LI

Governor visits as she tries to chip away at Blakeman's margins

A6-7

ONLY IN NEWSDAY

LIRR IOUS PLUMMET

Conductors issue half the number of invoices to customers who don't pay, but railroad recovers only a fraction of unpaid fares, figures show

NEWSDAY / STEVE PROST

Last year the railroad billed about 62,000 passengers who did not buy tickets — a reduction of 57% from 2024.

A3 | VIDEO AT NEWSDAY.TV

TEAM USA'S WORLD CUP DREAM ENDS WITH LOSS TO BELGIUM

SPORTS