Federal and local law enforcement arrested more than one hundred individuals during a three-day campaign on Interstate 85.

According to a release, Immigration and Customs Enforcement made 114 arrests for alleged immigration and criminal violations. This was during Operation SafeDRIVE, a joint operation involving five law enforcement agencies on Interstate 85. The operation began on May 12 and concluded on May 14.

Kyle McGahee with the South Carolina Department of Public Safety said "Operation SafeDRIVE," which stands for Distracted, Reckless, Impaired Visibility Enforcement, is an effort to reduce commercial motor vehicle collisions and unsafe driving behaviors around commercial motor vehicles.

In a release from the South Carolina Department of Public Safety, transport police and homeland security said they focused on traffic violations, with an emphasis on dangerous and distracted driver behavior, and vehicle compliance checks.

A verdict undone: Netflix doc reveals new details in Murdaugh case

USA TODAY NETWORK - SOUTH CAROLINA

A new Netflix documentary has revealed some startling and contrasting views from people behind the scenes of the Alex Murdaugh murder trial, as well as the lingering and painful impacts this high-profile case continues to have on the lives it touched.

The Murdaugh crime saga is back in the headlines after jury tampering allegations led the S.C. Supreme Court on May 13 to overturn Murdaugh's 2023 convictions in the 2021 murders of two family members and order a new trial, sparking a second Netflix treatment.

Produced by Words + Pictures, "Instadocs Episode 1: Alex Murdaugh, Unconvicted" launched on Netflix Saturday, May 30, and not only covers these latest developments but puts viewers inside the hearts and minds of two jurors with opposing viewpoints and experiences.

Murdaugh's wife, Maggie, and adult son, Paul, were gunned down at their family estate in rural Islandton on June 7, 2021. Their bodies were found near the family's kennels, chickens, and other farm animals nearby, and it is perhaps fitting that the 30-minute documentary opens in rural Cottageville as Murdaugh trial juror Craig Moyer feeds his chickens.

As narrators offer a quick recap of the high-profile, internationally followed murder and fraud case involving disbarred lawyer Murdaugh, a bearded Moyer, pacing his family farm in a fishing cap, brings it home as the atypical average citizen compelled to fulfill his civic duty by serving on jury duty.
